Sister St. Theresa Schmidt, originally from Frelsburg, is a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of Divine Providence, Our Lady of the Lake Convent, San Antonio, Texas. She joined the religious Order March 26, 1886; was admitted to the religious Profession in 1890; celebrated her Golden Jubilee in 1940.

She taught at several different schools conducted by the Sisters of Divine Providence in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico. She is now Principal of St. Joesph's School, Natchez, La.

Three other members of the parish became Sisters in the history of the parish. They are as follows:

Sister Mary Jane Frances Laake—died March 22, 1904.

Sister Mary Bertha Henneke—died May 17, 1892.

Sister Mary Cecelia Henneke—died Aug. 29, 1896.

Frelsburg, Texas 1847 — 1947

Frelsburg has the distinction of being one of the oldest parishes in the Galveston Diocese. The place is situated at the north end of Colorado County, and is named after one of the early settlers by the name of Frels. It was founded by German Catholics from Rhineland, who settled there some 100 years ago.

According to the parish records Fathers F. P. Stehle and Oge were the first who visited this place about the year of 1836. Services were held at that time in private homes, the usual custom when a new mission or parish is started.

Father F. A. Jacobs was the first resident pastor, since the first baptismal and marriage records bear his signature. In the year 1847, April 5, he baptized the son of Adam and Elizabeth Braden. Fr. Jacob was succeeded by Fr. J. Anstaett who erected the first church, and dedicated it to Sts. Peter and Paul.

The records show that the parish was established in 1847. The land (72 acres) was donated by Peter Piper.

Fr. J. Anstaett stayed until 1854. The parish under him and the succeeding pastor reached an important part of its history, and became one of the landmarks of early Ecclesiastical activity in Texas. Frelsburg at that time was known far and near as one of the principal parishes throughout the state. All the surrounding country within radius of at least fifty miles was attended from Frelsburg.

The parish continued to prosper under the subsequent pastor, the Rev. Peter V. Gury, who came in Feb., 1854 and stayed until 1887. Fr. Gury was appointed pastor of Frelsburg soon after his ordination to the Priesthood, and stayed there long enough not only to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of his ordination, but also that of his appointment as pastor. Among the priests of the early history of Texas, Fr. Gury is one of the most prominent. Piety, zeal and learning were the characteristics of his priestly life. The fact that in his time and under his care the first Seminary (Theological) was located in Frelsburg; this speaks highly indeed for his priestly activity and zeal for the advancement for religion in general. He was ably assisted in his work for the Seminary by Father T. Tarrillon.

Probably by previous arrangement by the Rev. Pastor, a parochial school was established at Frelsburg; The Sisters of Divine Providence of Castroville were in charge. During this time Fr. Gury was on vacation in France; the Rev. T.

Tarrillon was in charge. This was about the year of 1870.

Later Fr. Gury received the appointment of Vicar-general of the diocese of Galveston. His last baptismal signature took place on April 28, 1887. Thereafter he resided in Galveston. Though elevated to the dignity of Vicar-general and living at the resident of the Bishop, Fr. Gury always had a tender spot in his heart for Frelsburg where he spent the most fruitful part of his priestly life.

When the end of his missionary career came, he desired to be buried among the graves of his former spiritual children. His tombstone in the cemetery at Frelsburg, reads: "In Memory—Rev. Peter Victor Gury, V. G., of the Galveston Diocese." died April 9, 1890.

With the departure of Fr. Gury from Frelsburg in 1887 a certain decline in parish activities was almost immediately noticed. Also the establishment of new parishes in the neighborhood showed the importance of Fr. Gury. We find during the space of five years not less than six different pastors were in charge of Frelsburg. Father Jos. T. Lauth, C. S. C., Father Joe Dum; Father August Heuchorner, Father Carol Preis, Father J. Chromcik, Father P. M. Lennartz, Father V. Chlopick, Father Christopher Precker and Father G. Wiese. Father George Apel was in charge from 1898 to 1911.

In 1894, with Father Christopher Precker in charge, a new rectory was built, and many other improvements were made.

Father D. Berberick was placed in charge in March, 1911; a beautiful church was erected at the cost of about $5000.00.

The Teaching Sisters, however, which had contributed so much to the good of the parish were recalled in 1915. The parochial school which existed some forty-five years was discontinued. After the death of Father D. Berberick, which occurred on Feb. 14, 1916, Father George Berberick succeeded Father D. Berberick in Feb. 1916. Father M. A. Dombrowski replaced the latter in August 1916, and remained till 1921. Since June of that year there was no resident Priest, but Father George Duda of Mentz ministered to the faithful until November 1921. Father F. X. Prus was then assigned to be pastor and remained till 1926. For several months Father Jos. Klobouk was in charge.

In 1927, Father F. Stindle was appointed pastor. Nine years later—1936, the parish was in charge of Father H. T. Schroeder. It is now under the direction of Father Edward Geiser, who has been pastor since March 8, 1940.

The picture below shows the interior of the church built in 1912.

In 1926 the church was totally destroyed by fire and the parish and parishoners suffered a great set-back.

The disaster, however, did not discourage the people. Their great faith and animated zeal prompted them to begin plans for a new church.

Parish School

The parish was without a Catholic school for many years. Last but not least 1946 stands out unique in its accomplishments. The parish has completed a fine parochial school—a substantial brick building which is to accommodate all grammar grades, first to eighth inclusive. The present enrollment numbers sixty-three students. The Sisters of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament of Victoria have been in charge since September, 1946.

Because of the great cooperation among the parishioners who donated much of their time, the school was built for $9,000.00.

The school is a free institution, no charge is made for tuition; books are furnished free of charge. And free transportation is furnished to its students. The Parish has purchased a school bus which goes after the children.

PARISH SOCIETIES

The parish choir is to be congratulated for its fine work and perseverance in furnishing music and singing for the parish services.

C. Y. O. club is composed of many of the young people of the parish. The club was organized six years ago. It has been active within itself, besides helping with cash donations to the school. The club is also furnishing the athletic equipment for the school children.

The Cemetery Society: Its purpose is to take care of the cemetery. It has done a good job seeing the consecrated grounds are kept clean in respect for the bodies of the persons who have departed from this life.

The St. Peter & Paul Society was orgainzed by Fr. Geo. Apel on Aug. 19th, 1906, with twenty members. The officers were: Spiritual Adviser, Fr. Geo. Apel; President, Robert Schertz; Secretary, August Frenzel; Treasurer, Eugene Gully; of whom all have died many years ago. Only few of the members are living yet that were with the society at that time. None of them are in the society today.

The society had thirty members at one time, but now there are not as many. It has its regular meetings the second Sunday of every second month.

The present officers are: Spiritual Adviser, Fr. Edward Geiser; President, Alvin Laake; Secretary, Herman Wilde; Treasurer, Emil Buxkemper.

Saint Ann's Altar Society dates back to 1899, at that time Mrs. Louisa Laake was the President. She died many years ago. In later years Mrs. O'Tillie Buxkemper was President; she was president for many years; she is still living at the age of 90 years.

The Society was reorganized on May 26th, 1940, by Father Edward Geiser with fifteen members; now it has thirty-eight members.

The Society has for entertainment and financial assistance chicken stews, card parties, bingo parties, etc.

The Society is to be congratulated for its fine work in the parish. It has taken many duties upon itself; for the Society supplies the need of the Rectory, the Sister's home, keeps the church clean, also the laundrying of the Altar linens, and purchases all necessary articles for the Altar.

The present officers are: Spiritual Director, Fr. Edward Geiser; President, Mrs. Ewald Schmidt; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Ewald Stein.
